Re: Request for Additional Information (October Quarterly, 7/01 - 9/30/2006) and 30 Day Post-General Election Report (10/19 - 11/27/2006)

Dear Ms. Jones:

This is in response to the Federal Election Commission's analysis of Freedom's Defense Fund's October and Post-General Election 2006 FEC Disclosure Reports and your request for additional information concerning those reports.

1. The RFAI for the October Report identified three (3) vendors reporting credits on Schedule D, Line 10. Those vendors were Century Data Systems (CDS); Electronic Reporting Systems, Inc. (ERSI) and Mackenzie and Company (MCo). The CDS invoices reported and credited ($4,764.86) were for work done through and billed by BMW Lists. No payments were ever made to CDS and no invoices should have been reported. As for ERSI and MCo; these were in-kind compliance contributions by Scott Mackenzie and are reflected as such on the amended report.

2. Both RFAI's referred to the fact that donors were reported on both reports who lacked employer and occupation information. The majority of the contributions received are a result of direct mail solicitations and despite the fact that each appeal includes a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information as well as occupation and employer; some of the donors do not provide the requested information. The committee makes a point of obtaining the missing information and amends its reports after the fact.

Best Efforts Procedures: Within thirty (30) days of receipt of a contribution, the committee takes the following steps to satisfy the 'best efforts' requirements: (i) a letter is sent, clearly asking for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution; (ii) the contributor is informed of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information; and (iii) a return envelope is provided, as well as a fax number and an email address. Upon receipt of the information the committee amends its reports to provide the newly obtained information.

I trust that this response will satisfy the Commissions request for additional information. Please contact me should you require anything further.

Sincerely,

Scott B. Mackenzie
Treasurer
